

Vacation Policy

Sample document for the Company Policy RAG Assistant project.

Vacation Entitlement

Full-time employees receive 15 paid vacation days per calendar year after completing one year of continuous employment.

Requesting Vacation

Employees should submit vacation requests to their manager at least two weeks before the planned vacation whenever possible.

Approval

Vacation requests are subject to business requirements and manager approval.

Carryover

Employees may carry over up to five unused vacation days into the following calendar year with manager approval.

Vacation Pay

Vacation pay is provided in accordance with applicable employment standards and company procedures.

Planning

Employees are encouraged to plan vacation time in advance so that workload and team coverage can be managed effectively.